LifeWings is an aviation safety program that has been modified to train healthcare providers in effective patient interaction practices to create a culture of safety awareness and to reduce medical errors.

UTMB’s vision for the LifeWings program is to achieve a level of patient awareness and to reduce medical errors.

For information please visit: www.utmb.edu/impact