

Policy 9.13.25 Universal Protocol for Invasive and Surgical Procedures

Designated operative and invasive procedures

Procedures that expose patients to more than minimal risk, including procedures done in settings other than the operating room and procedure areas including clinics and the bedside.

Certain routine “minor” procedures such as venipuncture, peripheral IV line placement, insertion of NG tube, or Foley catheter insertion are not within the scope of this policy.